

This is a preview to the Grant Application that offers an early glimpse of the questions you'll need to answer before submitting the official request.

Please note that all requests for Phase One and Two of the Lisle Global Seed Grant must be submitted exclusively through the grant portal "Submit," and will only be accepted through this platform.

Project Overview

1. Project Title: _____

2. Project Location (s): _____
City, State and Country only

3. Brief Project Description: 200 word count limit

Applicant Organization

4. Name of Individual Submitting Application _____

5. Organization Proposing the Project: _____

6. Organization Mission Statement

7. Organization Website: _____

8. Organization Social Media Page Address(es): _____
Such as Facebook and/or LinkedIn

9. Organization Mailing Address: _____

10. Is the organization officially recognized as a non-profit?
This is not required for applicants, but useful to know. _____

Project Director

11. Project Director (Name, Title, Organization): _____

12. Brief biography of Project Director: 150 word count limit

13. Directors role in the project? 150 word count limit

14. Email Address: _____

15. Telephone: _____

Please include Country dial code

16. Alternative way to contact you: _____

Such as WhatsApp, Signal, or other contact as applicable

Project Description

17. Describe the cultural context and the problem(s) you are trying to address.

Assume readers do not know your organization or your cultural or historical circumstance.

18. Describe how your project will address the problems you have identified and the outcomes you hope to achieve with the project? Explain the project in about 300 words.

19. How does the project promote intercultural interactions? What different cultural groups (e.g. religious, ethnic, gender, age, political, racial, class) are brought into meaningful communication? 500 word count limit

20. Please provide a narrative of the project activities, including the sequence/timeline of activities, information about participants and who will benefit, and where the activities will take place.

Include anticipated numbers of participants and others who will be impacted. 500 word count limit

Seed Grant Clarification

21. How is this project innovative for your organization?

In what ways will this project allow you to do your work in a new way? 150 word count limit

22. How might you sustain or expand your project after Lisle funding? Please explain.

150 word count limit

Project Evaluation

23. What methods will you use to evaluate the project to assess whether the outcomes listed in Question 18 were achieved?

Describe several means you will use to evaluate the project, including how and when they will be implemented, and what you expect to learn from them.

Project Budget

Budget category	Amount requested from Lisle	Amount required from other non-Lisle sources	Identify non-Lisle funding source	Are these non-Lisle funds already promised for this project	Breakdown of expenses	Rationale: why is this expense necessary for the project?
Personnel: honoraria, per diems, consultants, etc.
Materials: pre-project information, workshop manuals, advertising brochures, final reports, etc.
Communication: telephone, internet, etc
Space rental: office, meeting, dorms, etc.
Travel: in-country, airfares, etc.
Other (type what other is below)
Input
Total						